

The Old Bee Hive

Linens

Housekeeping Linens, Hotel or Boarding House Linens, Linens of all descriptions at Old Bee Hive Prices, which means less than the same qualities can be purchased elsewhere. Never were we better prepared to save you money on Linens than Now.

A large import order intended for a late sale arrived unexpectedly early. We put them on sale at once. The values will convince you immediately of the big saving to be made.

Napkins

We call special attention to one Lot of 400 Dozen Fine Bleached Napkins, sizes 24-inch, 25-inch, 26-inch and 27-inch. Just such qualities as you would pay elsewhere $2.50 to $3.75 per dozen—Choice of any size, while they last, at $2.00 per dozen.

Matched Sets

Not an every-day opportunity.
8x10 Covers with 4 Napkins to match, per set .....$4.87
8x12 Covers with 4 Napkins to match, per set .....$5.37

Damasks

Extra Heavy Unbleached, 66 in. wide, per yard .....82½¢
Extra Heavy Half Bleached, 72 in. wide, per yard .....82½¢
Extra Heavy Full Bleached, 66 in. wide, per yard .....88¢
Extra Heavy Full Bleached, 72 in. wide, per yard .....75¢
Fine Irish, German and Austrian Satin Damask, regular $1.00 to $1.35 qualities at, per yard .....75¢, 82½¢ and 98¢

Remnants

50 yards Damask Remnants. Lengths from 2½ to 5 yards—If cut from regular piece goods would cost $1.50 or more per yard—Give you your choice at, per yard .....87½¢ and 98¢

Towels

You can't get too many Towels, but here is your chance to select a supply for present use.
100 dozen All-Linen Towels, 18x32-in. size, per dozen .....$1.50
100 dozen All-Linen Towels, 18x35-in. size, per dozen .....$2.25
100 dozen Webb's Sun-Bleached Towels, 20x37-in. size, per dozen .....$3.00
50 dozen Webb's Hemstitched Sun-Bleached Towels, 19x58-in. size, per dozen .....$4.00

100 dozen Hemstitched Huckabuck Towels, 20x39, per doz. $3.00
Hundreds of dozens of Fine Huckabuck and Damask Towels, ranging from, per dozen .....$4.00 to $15.00

Barber Towels

Barber Towels in small lots at quality prices, per dozen, 65¢, $1.00 to $2.25

Do you enjoy a Bath Towel? We have them in all sizes and weights. Let us show you the most satisfactory towel for this purpose ever produced—We want you to try one of the famous and enjoy the pleasures of a perfect absorbent towel—Special exhibit on our Center Linen Counter Today.

Rubdry Towels

STEVENS CRASHES,
RUSSIAN CRASHES,
BARNABY CRASHES,
HOMESPUN CRASHES,
SCOTCH CRASHES,
HUCK CRASHES,
FANCY HUCK CRASHES
GLASS CRASHES.

Crashes of every description by the yard for Roller Towels, Hand Wipers, Kitchen Towels, etc.—Special low prices by the piece.
3,000 yards Heavy Twilled Crash for this sale 7½¢ per yard—Usually sold at 10 cents.
1,800 yards Mill Remnants, regular 12½¢ quality. Length from 3 to 6 yards at 10¢ per yard.
Glass Wipers, 18x32, bordered and cut ready for use, excellent weight and quality—18¢ each, 3 for 50¢.

Fancy Linens

Tray Covers, Scarfs, D'Oyleys Cover Pieces, Table Runners and Tea Covers in Hemstitch Lace and Fringed Patterns.

THE OLD BEE HIVE is acknowledged Headquarters on Linens and saves you money on every purchase and our guarantee goes with every transaction.

THE OLD BEE HIVE.

HOPKINS & ALLEN SHOT GUNS

BLUED BARREL at $5.00

TWIST BARREL at $6.00

These are well-made American Guns, guaranteed for Nitro Powder. Don't consider some of the cheap goods on the market when you can buy these reliable guns at such low prices.

We sell direct from the makers to you.

John A. Manson & Co.,
98 CHURCH STREET, BURLINGTON, VT.

$2,000 FOR ALLEGED ASSAULT

Case of Mrs. Christine Peters against Deputy Sheriff Beggs.

The case of Mrs. Christine Peters vs. J. D. Brodie and G. W. Kelley was taken up Monday afternoon when county court resumed its sessions. This is an action to recover damages of $2,000, the ad damnum having been raised yesterday from $1,000, for an assault alleged to have been committed in August, 1904.

The defendants, who are deputy sheriffs, were sent to attach property owned by Nelson Peters, the husband of the plaintiff. When they arrived they secured a graphophone and as they were taking it Mrs. Peters rushed at them, caught hold of the machine and said it was her property, paid for with her own money and that they had no right to take it. According to her testimony yesterday Deputy Brodie twisted her fingers and Deputy Kelley caught her by the arms after Deputy Brodie said she was to be arrested for breach of the peace. She said he was assisted into a room but later jumped out and was thrown down and choked by Deputy Kelley. She said that on the evening of that day Deputy Brodie returned and arrested her, together with Mr. Peters. The defendants in the case admit that Mrs. Peters rushed at them but deny that they used any force beyond what was necessary to serve the legal papers in their possession. C. S. Palmer and T. H. Powell appear for the plaintiff and M. G. Leary, M. S. Vilas and V. A. Bullard for the defendants.

While there is life there is hope. It was afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it. —Marcus G. Shantz, Rahway, N. J. Cream Balm touched me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H. The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 5¢ or mailed by Ely Brothers, 55 Warren Street, New York.

ALMOST A CENTENARIAN.

Death of Mrs. Sarah P. Blodgett in Her 99th Year.

The death of Mrs. Sarah P. Blodgett, which occurred at the home of her nephew, Charles E. Pease, of 61 King Street Monday morning, removes one of the oldest residents of Burlington, Mrs. Blodgett having attained the remarkable age of 98 years, seven months and 19 days. Mrs. Blodgett had enjoyed good health and remarkable measure of strength so that she was active about the house almost to the last, when there was a gradual lessening of the physical powers until she ceased to breathe at 3:30 o'clock Monday morning.

Mrs. Blodgett had been a resident of Burlington for upwards of three-quarters of a century. She was born in Braintree, Mass., Feb. 21, 1807, the daughter of Asa and Sarah (Mistler) Pease. She was married to Amos P. Blodgett of this city in January, 1825. Following the death of her husband, Mrs. Blodgett went to live with her brother, the late S. M. Pease, and since his death had lived with her nephew, Charles E. Pease, the house where her death occurred having been her home for more than 30 years. Mrs. Blodgett was the mother of one daughter, who died many years ago in girlhood. Her nearest relatives are nephews and nieces. Mrs. Blodgett was a Unitarian in religion and the oldest member of the church of that denomination in this city.

JENNETT VS. PATTEN.

Money Paid Over and Assault Case Finally Settled.

After having been tried in county court, where a judgment was rendered for the plaintiff, then going to the supreme court, where the verdict of the lower court was sustained, the case of Jennett vs. Patten has been finally adjusted by the payment by Henry Patten of $1,500, the plaintiff to pay the costs.

This case was tried a year ago, the action growing out of an alleged assault in which the plaintiff claimed to have been seriously injured. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff to recover damages of $2,500, together with costs. The decision from the supreme court was received a few weeks ago and the settlement for the above named sum has just been accomplished. J. J. Knight and R. E. Brown appeared for the plaintiff and Foster, Palmer and Russell for the defendant.

SQUASH IN A TREE.

Owner Transferred It to a Market Basket, Tied to a Branch.

It was expected that a squash weighing 65 pounds would put an end to squash stories, but another has been heard from on Grant street that deserves mention, not for its weight but because of its location. I. C. Stone has a small garden at the rear of his home in which he planted several hills of squash. One of the vines wandered into an apple-tree belonging to neighbor and high up in the branches a squash was discovered a month or so ago. It was a promising specimen but its position was rather perilous, so the owner of the vine, with the permission of the owner of the apple-tree climbed up to the squash and cradled it in a market basket, tied to one of the branches. Here it grew to the modest weight of 20 pounds, "in the shade of the old apple-tree," as it were.

110TH ANNIVERSARY.

Washington Lodge to Celebrate It Next Friday Evening.

The members of Washington Lodge, No. 3, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, will celebrate the 110th anniversary of the lodge on Friday evening at the lodge rooms in the Masonic Temple. The lodge will be opened at 7:30 o'clock and the master Mason degree will be conferred upon one candidate, the work to be done by past masters of the lodge.

At the conclusion of the degree work a banquet will be served in the banquet hall, at which time postprandial exercises will occur. There are alive at the present time 12 past masters of Washington Lodge. They are Charles W. Woodhouse, Edward A. Jewett, Levelette F. Engleby, George W. Lowrey, Charles C. Miller, Don A. Stone, Judson E. Cushman, George W. Grandy, Herbert M. McIntosh, J. Holmes Jackson and Ernest A. Brodie.

BOOKS WILL BE SOLD.

Committee Appointed to Dispose of the Burlington Law Library.

It was practically decided Monday to disband the Burlington law library which was established in 1870. The organization did not exist of existence but at a meeting of the members held at Elkin B. Taft's office a committee was appointed to consider means of disposing of the books and when they are gone the organization will have nothing to exist for.

It was necessary to elect officers in order that the affairs of the organization might be closed satisfactorily and the following were named: President, Elkin B. Taft; secretary, C. E. Allen; treasurer, C. W. Brownell. These three men were named as a committee to make out a list of books in the library, to consider the best method of disposing of them, to canvas for bids for them and to have general charge of their disposal. The books of the organization will be audited and a list of the members made out.

BOY LIQUOR DEALER.

Furnished Forbidden Field to Other Boys and Got Four Months.

Oliver Germain, a youth not yet 19 years old, was Monday sentenced by Judge Mower in city court to serve not more than three months and not less than four months in the House of Correction for furnishing liquor to several youngsters, whose ages ranged from eight to 12 years.

When Germain was first in court he pleaded not guilty, but was held for county court. A few days ago he asked State Attorney Sherman to file an information against him and to that he pleaded guilty. A request was then made to have him placed in the hands of the probation officer, but that was refused by Judge Mower. The costs in the case amounted to $10.13 and as he cannot pay the amount about another month will therefore be added to his sentence. The evidence at the preliminary trial tended to show that the liquor was stolen by Germain.

Profit in Poultry Food.

The best evidence that there is money in feeding Poultry Food is the fact that the most successful Poultrymen use it. Thumant, H. L. Brown, who is principal of Sherman College Institute, Moriah, N. Y., is also something of a Poultry Fancier. Read what he says about Poultry Food: "I have used 'Fage's Perfected Poultry Food' for five years with entire satisfaction and would not be without it. For growing chicks and laying fowls it is a very superior food."

TROLLEY CARS IN COLLISION

A Dozen Passengers Injured but None Seriously

Accident on the Winooski Road Due to Leaves on the Rails, Making It Impossible for Motorman to Control the Rear Car.

A dozen or more persons were injured, none of them seriously, in a rear-end collision between two cars belonging to the Burlington Traction company on the lower road to Winooski about 10:45 o'clock Saturday evening.

A large Essex car and one of the small cars carrying the Winooski line, the former in charge of Motorman Frank Austin and Conductor W. R. Griffiths; the small car in charge of Motorman F. T. Hunt and Conductor James Simpson, left the Strong Theatre about 10:30 o'clock bound for Essex Junction and the post. Both cars carried a large number of passengers. The Essex car, which was in the lead, had orders to await the arrival of the last car bound for the city at the switch just east of Athletic Park. The car was on the switch, and the smaller car was following directly in the rear.

At the bend in the road Motorman Hunt tried to stop the car, but the rear car to a standstill, but the car slid along and refused to be governed by the car mechanism, owing to the leaves on the track and because of a short grade at this point. The motorman, when he saw that he could not avert a collision, jumped out of the car and ran toward the rear of the Essex car.

Richard Whalen, an employee of the Traction company, was on the platform of the forward car, and when he saw that a collision was inevitable, called to Motorman Austin to put on power and start his car. This action lessened the force of the collision considerably.

On the platform of the rear car were many soldiers, who, when they saw what was coming had enough presence of mind to call to passengers, which prevented a panic on the car. In trying to get to the passengers to assist them Quartermaster Sergeant Mack Payne, Troop M, of the first sustained a broken leg. In the forward car no one was injured and the only damage was to the windows in the motorman's compartment. The windows in the smaller car, however, were badly shattered. As soon as the crash was over those who were not injured immediately looked for the injured and for the soldiers. The Essex car was turned into an ambulance and rushed those hurt to physicians in Winooski.

The accident was due wholly to the slippery condition of the rails because of the leaves, but if passengers had not been riding on the platform, the number of injured would have been smaller. It is reported that the smaller car had about 50 passengers aboard, nearly all of them from Winooski for the fort. The traction officials have not yet learned the names of all who sustained injuries, but the following were seen Sunday by a Free Press man.

Mrs. Morris Buckley, who is the most seriously injured, lives on Lehigh street in Winooski. She was riding in the front of the rear car and when the crash came, some one fell into her lap and the crowd pressed down on her. It was feared that two of her ribs were broken, but Dr. E. A. Burdick, who attended her, believes these fears are groundless. Her injuries consist mainly of a severely bruised forehead, cheek and left side. Last evening her condition was reported as comfortable.

Quartermaster Sergeant Mack Payne, Troop M, 15th cavalry is confined to the fort hospital with a broken leg.

Private George Westcott, 2nd battery, is also at the fort hospital, with a sprained wrist, face and arm and bruised.

David Walker, an employee of the woolen mill, had one knee badly bruised, a piece of flesh the size of a silver dollar being torn out. He was also otherwise bruised and cut.

Arthur L'Esper of West street, Winooski, was thrown from the car into the road. His head was badly cut and bruised. His fingers were also cut from falling. Dr. Sheehan attended him and removed as much glass as he could find but there are still pieces of glass in the man's head.

Thomas McCabe of Weaver's Lane, Winooski, had both his index fingers badly cut. He was attended by Dr. Sheehan.

Frank Kirby, Jr., who lives on the lower road, received a cut back of the head on the side of his face. Pieces of glass stuck in his head. He was attended by Dr. Hill.

Edward Ward, a mason, who also lives on the lower road, was bruised and cut. Dr. Hill also attended him.

D. C. Rollins of the woolen mill was cut and bruised. The glass played a peculiar trick with his hat. A piece flew through the air and cut the crown of his derby clean off.

William Jones and William Viers were riding on the rear platform and when they saw what was coming Viers pushed Jones off and fell on him. Neither was hurt, but their clothes were ruined.

They received injuries of a slight nature but as they have not consulted physicians or informed the traction company that they were on the cars, it is impossible to learn who they are.

As soon as the accident occurred Superintendent Jones was telephoned for and he immediately assumed charge of operations and did everything possible for the comfort of the passengers.

RICHMOND MAN ACCUSED.

Charged with Selling Intoxicating Liquor without a License.

Ora Mulford of Richmond was brought to city court Tuesday and placed in jail to await trial in county court on charges of selling liquor without a license. His arrest grew out of a search at his place in Richmond, where two bottles of whiskey were seized. A hearing was held Monday before Justice Salmon Green at Richmond, State's Attorney Sherman being called there from Burlington to prosecute. Evidence of two sales was introduced and Mulford was held for county court in the sum of $200, which he was unable to furnish.

FIRE IN A BAKERY.

Started Some Distance from Big Oven and Origin is Unknown.

The smartest blaze in this city within the past few weeks was the one which occurred at A. S. Fasset's bakery, 28 School street, Tuesday and which completely gutted the baking room and charred both the interior and exterior of other portions of the building.

The alarm for the fire was sounded from box 29 on Loomis street at 12:07 p. m., and there was a prompt general response from the several fire companies. The fire was discovered by Mrs. Fasset in a corner of the baking room in the basement of the building occupied by the family as a dwelling. The origin of the blaze is unknown. It was discovered in a corner of the room, farthest away from the oven, so it seems entirely unlikely that it started from sparks which might have come from that source. The day's baking had been completed and the fire was in the oven. The alarm for the fire was sounded from box 29 on Loomis street at 12:07 p. m., and there was a prompt general response from the several fire companies.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Fasset in a corner of the baking room in the basement of the building occupied by the family as a dwelling. The origin of the blaze is unknown. It was discovered in a corner of the room, farthest away from the oven, so it seems entirely unlikely that it started from sparks which might have come from that source. The day's baking had been completed and the fire was in the oven. The alarm for the fire was sounded from box 29 on Loomis street at 12:07 p. m., and there was a prompt general response from the several fire companies.

Mr. Fasset was unable to state the exact amount of his loss. The building is insured for $20,000 through the agency of Hickok & Hickok. The furniture is insured for $20,000 through the agency of Powell & Powell. Supplies in the baking room, amounting to probably between $100 and $150, were destroyed and their loss will be total. The large oven was practically unharmed.

DISTRICT DEPUTIES HERE.

Large Attendance at the Annual Meeting in Burlington Tuesday.

The annual meeting of the district deputy grand masters for Vermont was held Tuesday at the Masonic Temple with a large attendance of grand lodge officers. In addition to all but three of the district deputies, the meeting was under the direction of H. L. Pailou, grand lecturer. The time was devoted to ritual and floor work and general instruction. Addresses were also given by Mr. Hallou and by D. N. Nicholson, past grand master.

Those present were N. P. Bowman, P. G. M., of St. Johnsbury; D. M. Eason, P. G. M., of St. Johnsbury; O. W. Daley, P. G. M., of White River Junction; W. E. Bunker, G. M., of Providence; L. J. C. A. Calderwood, D. G. M., of St. Johnsbury; L. S. Thilston, G. S. W., of St. Albans; E. C. Penton, G. J. W., of Boston; and G. E. Mosher of Rochester, J. L. Miles of Fowell, O. P. Black of Pawlet, H. Peck of Burlington, E. L. Roberts of Barre, A. B. Beaman of Fairlee, C. W. Cutler of Townshend, A. J. Husk of Randolph, H. O. Reynolds of Grand Isle, W. W. Spaulding of Wolcott, P. N. Piper of Guildhall, district deputy grand masters.

The trustees of the Masonic Temple met Tuesday in connection with the gathering of the district officers and decided upon various improvements and repairs at the temple and transacted routine business.

LICENSE LACKING

Napoleon Mercier to Be Arraigned in Court for Illegal Selling.

Napoleon Mercier, former holder of a liquor license on South Battery street, will be arraigned before Justice J. T. Stearns some day this week on a charge of selling liquor without a license. A search was made Saturday night at the premises formerly occupied as a saloon by Deputy Sheriff Brodie, Lord, Kelley and Ravlin. They gained entrance through the rear and discovered men drinking.

The search disclosed a case of beer, another of ale and a bottle of whiskey, which were seized, together with other evidence of sale. Bail was fixed by Justice Stearns at $200, which was furnished. Mercier will be defended by J. J. Knight.

TWO DIVORCES GRANTED.

Brief Session of County Court on Saturday.

The session of county court Saturday was brief, the morning being occupied with two divorce cases, in each of which a bill was granted. At noon an adjournment was taken until Monday afternoon.

The case of Fanny Grant vs. Samuel Grant was first tried. The bill was granted on the grounds of intolerable severity and the custody of a minor child was given to the petitioner.

In the case of Cassie E. Bradford vs. Willis M. Bradford a bill was granted on the grounds of desertion. A letter written by the petitioner to his daughter had considerable bearing on the result of this case. Mrs. Bradford was given the custody of two minor children.

HORSE AND BUGGY GONE.

Were Rented from a Winooski Livery Stable Last Monday.

Frank Bordo, a liveryman of Winooski, has reported to the sheriff's department that a young man about 21 years of age came to his stable last Monday morning and hired a horse and buggy to be gone about two hours. No trace of the man or the property has yet been found. The young man was of medium size, light complexion, smooth face, wore a mixed gray suit and soft hat. The animal was a sorrel mare with small white stripe in forehead, two white front feet, with both knees barked and one scar on shoulder. The carriage was a yellow geared, black body top buggy, low wheels, wooden spokes and rubber tire.

MORE RACES AT HINESBURGH.

Owing to the success which attended the last meeting of the Hinesburgh Driving club, it has been decided to have another series of races this fall and accordingly three events will be run next Saturday. These will include a named race, a farmers' race and a free-for-all.

The entries in the named race will be Thumant, owned by Cornelius O'Brien of Richmond; Sid Allen, owned by N. A. Johns of Huntington, and Nookie, owned by Frank Brown of Burlington. The entries for the other races close Friday night. It is expected that a number of horses well known in this section will be in the list. It is probable that some new ones will be given a trial. This will, without doubt, be the last race of the season.

GOING TO DETROIT

Rev. G. G. Atkins to Leave Burlington May 1.

Pastor of the First Church Has Accepted a Call to the First Congregational Church in the Michigan City.

The Rev. G. Glenn Atkins, D. D., pastor of the First Church, has received a call to the pastorate of the First Congregational Church of Detroit, Mich., and has practically accepted the call, his pastorate with the church in Detroit to commence next May. This action on the part of Dr. Atkins is the outcome of negotiations which have been quietly under way since the first of last May.

The notification of the extension of the call came to Dr. Atkins Tuesday in a telegraphic despatch as follows:

"Rev. G. G. Atkins, Burlington, Vt.: 'Church and society unanimous and sang "Coronation" most heartily—large attendance—vote enthusiastically—only regret May 1 so far away.'"

"CHARLES W. HITCHCOCK."

The formal call has not yet been received by Dr. Atkins but it will probably be received in a few days. The call is extended with the understanding that Dr. Atkins will not take up the work until the first of May. Dr. Atkins had requested to be advised early of the decision of the Detroit church so that he could give the First Church here ample time in which to secure his successor. The action of the Detroit church is, consequently, an acceptance of a period of seven months away, is certainly flattering and speaks eloquently of the church's appreciation of the man whom they seek.

The First Congregational Church of Detroit is one of the two or three largest Congregational churches west of the Hudson river and offers an attractive field of service. The membership is something over a thousand. The Rev. Nehemiah Boynton, for nine years its pastor, assumed the pastorate of the Clinton Avenue Church in Brooklyn last February. The Detroit church will thus have been without a head for a year and a quarter when Dr. Atkins assumes the pastorate next May. He has never preached in the church.

Speaking of the change to a Free Press man Tuesday night, Dr. Atkins said: "I contemplate the possible termination with very sincere regret and have been led to take the step by a mixed group of motives. Some of them were connected with professional advancement and some with the very large opportunities which the church offers for service; a desire to be near my own people in the West and the feeling that the Middle West very largely the strategic center of American life at present."

"My formal resignation will not be made at present," said Dr. Atkins, continuing, "and I have taken this into consideration in planning the work of the winter. The plans will not be altered and nothing will be disturbed at present."

The proposed change of Dr. Atkins will be received with widespread regret, both by the people of his own parish and by the citizens of the community generally. Dr. Atkins's vigor of intellect, rare accumulation of knowledge, commanding personality and great powers of oratory have given him an exceptional equipment for the ministerial calling and he has been a leader and a light in the life of the city—truly a master in Israel. He came to the First Church in May, 1900, so will have rounded out six years' service when he relinquishes the work next May. Dr. Atkins is now in his 38th year. He was born in Indiana, but received his early education and academic training in Ohio. He graduated from the Ohio State University at Columbus in 1888 and from the Cincinnati Law school in 1891. Finding the law not to his taste, he entered Yale divinity school, where he completed his course the following year. He subsequently taught for three years in Mount Hermon, (Mass.) school for boys and in 1895 assumed his first pastorate, that of the Second Congregational Church in Greenfield, Mass. Here he remained for five years, or until he took up his work in Burlington in May, 1899. He is married and has four children.

At once upon taking up his work at the First Church, Dr. Atkins's force and influence were felt. The church membership was then 230; it is now about 600. The Young People's alliance was formed in October, 1901, and it is now a flourishing society, enlisting the loyalty of about 50 of the young people of the church. The women's work of the church has been re-organized and placed upon a new basis. The Men's Fellowship club has been formed and has been instrumental in bringing to the community some distinguished speakers to deliver the address at its annual banquet.

Dr. Atkins has also delivered orations before the Phi Beta Kappa society of the University of Vermont and before learned and distinguished bodies elsewhere, both within and without the State; has been prominent in Congregational councils throughout the State and a frequently sought preacher at most of the New England institutions of learning. At the centennial commencement of the University of Vermont a year ago last July, he was honored by the doctorate divinity, conferred by President Burdick in his term. "Golden-mouthed preacher, literary critic, and appreciator, earnest and resourceful citizen."

"COUSIN KATE" MONDAY EVENING.

The attraction at The Strong Theatre Monday night was Hubert Henry Davis's successful play, "Cousin Kate," with Virginia Drew Trecoitt in the stellar role.

Miss Trecoitt is a most charming and capable artist, and her appearance here should have been enjoyed by a full house, but her manner was unfortunate in running up against the annual "Uncle Tom's Cabin" engagement.

"Cousin Kate" is a pretty play which manages to keep the audience guessing until the very end as to whether it is "coming out right." Cousin Kate herself is the whole show and Miss Trecoitt gives a very artistic and convincing interpretation of the part. Herbert McKenney, who plays Heath Desmond, the artist, and shares the stage with Cousin Kate was intended by nature to take the part of a Willy Boy and, considering his handicap of lift and general appearance, he deserves all the more credit for the earnest and sympathetic work which he puts into his role. He is a real find and a very pretty picture of the innocent impressionable age. Paul Anderson's young clergyman, though a little overdone, was amusing and Lizzie Goode as the widowed mother, was all that could be desired. Florida Wilson enacted the role of Bobby in a way that would make a real boy's lip curl with scorn, but the part is a minor one and when Cousin Kate was on the stage her compelling personality swept aside all criticism.

YOU

Will be dressed right up to the Queen's taste if your suit comes from us. There's no doubt about it. The Hart, Schaffner & Marx line will do it. The swellest appearing clothes on the street.

$15 to $23

The Blue Store
H. C. Humphrey

85 Church St., Burlington

You Don't Feel The Expenditure When Buying a New Dinner Set

from an open-stock pattern. Know why? Next time you need a dozen dinner plates select them from an "open-stock" pattern. When you want a meat platter—choose from the same pattern. Keep adding to this nucleus and the first thing you know your odd purchases comprise a handsome set.

Now, if you had bought different decorations that struck your fancy, every time you needed special items your aggregate purchases would look like a job-lot.

Think it over—or better yet, come in and talk it over—and look the patterns over. Complete Sets under-priced too, if you 100 ps. regular $9.95, this week $7.